BAIL BONDSMEN/SOLICITOR PRE-LICENSING ON-THE-JOB CERTIFICATION FORM

In order to be eligible to take the examination required to be licensed as a bail bondsman or solicitor, the applicant shall complete pre-licensing requirements. Pre-licensing requirements shall include thirty (30) hours of on-the-job training under the direct supervision of a licensed bail bondsman who shall certify that the applicant has been taught the subjects pertinent to the duties and responsibilities of a bail bondsman, including ethics and all laws and rules related to the bail bonds business and the applicant is prepared to take the examination per NMSA § 59A-51-4-1.

Please complete and submit the log once the applicant has completed thirty (30) hours of on-the-job training.

The undersigned hereby certifies that under penalty of perjury, that all the information submitted, and the attachments are true and correct and I am aware that submitting false or misleading information in connection with this application is grounds for license revocation and may be subject to civil or criminal penalties.
